The Joyful Mysteries

Opening Reflection: Sometimes it is difficult to ponder the Joyful Mysteries, especially in times of tragedy. It is with sadness this evening that we remember the victims of violence, their families, their communities, first responders and law enforcement. Even so, St. Paul tells us to “Rejoice in the Lord always.” We know these sad times will not last forever. In Mark 10:14 Jesus said, “Let the children come to me.” May the children and adults who have died through senseless violence rest in God’s peace. For those who survive, may they find healing and peace.

In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen

Apostle’s Creed, Our Father, Hail Mary for virtue of Faith, Hope, Charity, Glory Be

The First Joyful Mystery: The Annunciation

Fruit of the Mystery: Humility

Meditation: When we recall the angel appearing to Mary, telling her of her selection to be the Savior’s Mother, we sit in awe of her ability to offer her fiat. There would be many joys and sorrows that accompanied that fiat. May we, in humility, accept the joys and the sorrows that we find in our lives.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Fatima Prayer

The Second Joyful Mystery: The Visitation

Fruit of the Mystery: Love of Neighbor

Meditation: Just as Mary traveled immediately to minister to her cousin Elizabeth, may we show charity to those suffering the unspeakable pain of the loss of loved ones, whether in Uvalde, Buffalo, or Ukraine.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Fatima Prayer

The Third Joyful Mystery: The Birth of Jesus

Fruit of the Mystery: Poverty of Spirit, Detachment from the things of this world

Meditation: The Holy Family has three members. We pray for the strength of all families, no matter their size. We pray for extended family and community members to assist and minister to parents in this time of dire need.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Fatima Prayer

The Fourth Joyful Mystery: The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple

Fruit of the Mystery: Obedience

Meditation: In Luke 2:22-23, we hear the story of Simeon who had held the baby Jesus as his parents brought the Child, according to law, to the temple. May we acknowledge right from wrong and promote a respect for human life from conception to natural death.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Fatima Prayer

The Fifth Joyful Mystery: The Finding of Jesus in the Temple

Fruit of the Mystery: Joy in Finding Jesus

Meditation: When tragedy strikes, many people have difficulty seeing Jesus in the midst of their pain, yet we know He is there. May our own lives, our prayer, and our ministry give witness to the joy we have known in finding Jesus in the good times and the bad.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be, Fatima Prayer

Hail Holy Queen

Concluding Prayer

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

In the Name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen.
