Convergence® 2022 Wearable Art Exhibit and Fashion Show

Produced by the Handweavers Guild of America, Inc. (HGA), Seasons of the Smokies is a juried exhibit featuring wearable art fashions including works from invited artists and Student Fashion Design Challenge participants. Any fiber arts technique may be used. Before being placed on exhibit, accepted pieces will be worn and shown in the Convergence® Fashion Show held at the Knoxville Convention Center on July 15, 2022.

The Smoky Mountains are blessed with very distinct seasonal experiences. Each season provides inspiration in the form of diverse and unique flowers, weather, climate, colors, and outdoor activities. Let the seasons and the changes that unfold during each transition inspire your creativity, colors, and textures.

Exhibit: July 15 - 18, 2022, to be held at the Knoxville Convention Center, Knoxville, Tennessee, USA.

Juror: Dianne Totten

Handwoven clothing has been Dianne Totten's focus with emphasis on garments using "crimp cloth", a technique she developed and teaches nationally/internationally for guilds and conferences. She has been sewing for more than 60 years and weaving for over 40. She has been published in many weaving publications and has won numerous awards.
